AmAssurance launches latest Life Insurance system called AmPowerLife System

Customers of AmAssurance can now expect a speedier and more efficient response from AmAssurance on any Life Insurance transactions which involves multiple process layers with the launch of AmPowerLife System today.

AmAssurance has invested RM21 million in the new core Life Insurance system upgrading project to replace the routine administration processes with an integrated auto-administrative system called AmPowerLife System, to cut down the turnaround time of the processing cycle while maximising productivity.

“To be the top insurer for service, upgrading our systems is one of our tactical initiatives to provide a prompt service to our customers and business partners in order to ensure all transactions can be processed and approved quickly,” said Mr Ng Lian Lu, Chief Executive Officer of AmAssurance.

With the new system in place, Mr Ng added that staff of AmAssurance can now focus more on planning and management tasks rather than daily administrative duties, hence increasing cost efficiency.

“As prompt service has always been our main focus for every aspect of AmAssurance’s business, the cost savings from manpower will be channelled towards initiating more customer-centric technology which will be rolled out in the near future,” added Mr Ng.

This system upgrading project commenced in March 2008 and was fully deployed after 19 months of implementation. The project was divided into two main phases where the first phase of implementation covers all the investment-linked, universal life and medical products while the second phase involves traditional and credit-related products. The second phase will commence in January 2010 and expected to go live in March 2011.

AmAssurance has thus far invested in technology to elevate both operational efficiency and agency force productivity. Apart from AmPowerLife System, AmAssurance recently launched a customer information micro site called AmPrestige to replace the conventional paper-based work processes. To promote mobility, efficiency and speed, AmAssurance's top life agents were also equipped with a notebook to conduct their daily sales and recruitment activities.
