AmAssurance acquires office tower: "Bangunan AmAssurance"

AmAssurance Berhad has recently acquired an office tower to house its headquarters in Kuala Lumpur. Effective April 2006, the office tower previously known as Bangunan AMDB has been renamed Bangunan AmAssurance, signifying the insurer's ownership and the company's massive growth since its establishment in 1973.

The 21-storey office tower with two basement parking levels is approximately 230 feet in height and has a floor area of 216,812 square feet and located on Jalan Lumut, Kuala Lumpur. Prominent landmarks in the locality include Wisma ASMB (Amanah Saham MARA Berhad, Vistana Condominiums, Grand Seasons Hotel, Vistana Hotel, Sentosa Medical Centre, Damai Service Hospital, and the Pekeliling Bus Station to name a few. The tower features male and female "suraus" (prayer rooms), cafeterias, and building automation and CCTV security systems.

"AmAssurance provides customers with what we call 'Warm and Friendly Service, The Malaysian Way' in line with our tagline of 'Service 1st. Our Promise'. The range of products that contribute to the extensive growth of AmAssurance include a variety of life and general insurance products that cater to everyone's needs," explains Mr Ng Lian Lu, Chief Executive Officer, AmAssurance Berhad.

AmAssurance Berhad is a composite insurer offering both life and general insurance services with offices in Kuala Lumpur, Klang, Seremban, Pulau Pinang, Alor Setar, Sungai Petani, Ipoh, Kuantan, Kota Bahru, Kuala Terengganu, Melaka, Johor Bahru, Batu Pahat, Kluang, Kuching, Sibul, Miri and Kota Kinabalu.

AmAssurance Berhad was incorporated on 17th September 1973 as The First Life Insurance Company (M) Berhad. Since then it has undergone various restructuring and name changes with the most recent in June 2002, when Arab-Malaysian Assurance Berhad, as it was formerly known, was renamed AmAssurance Berhad on 10th June 2002.
